Dear Shareholder,

Checkit plc (the "Company")
Re: Consent to Electronic Communications

I am writing to you to seek your consent to the Company communicating with you electronically in the future.

The Company's articles of association permit the Company to supply certain notices, documents and information to its members by making them available on the Company's website. This means that the Company has the ability to publish documents such as its Annual Report and any notice of general meeting on its website at www.checkit.net instead of printing and posting them out to members. Reducing the number of communications sent by post will not only result in cost savings for the Company, but it will also reduce the impact that unnecessary printing and distribution of documents has on the environment.

Company law requires that members are asked individually to consent to this method of publication. I am, therefore, seeking your agreement to receive future documents and information generally via the Company's website as a default method of communication.

If you consent to website publication, you will no longer receive hard copies of any documents and information in the post. You will instead be notified each time that the Company places a communication with members on its website. This notification will be sent to you by post. If you would prefer to receive such notifications by email, you will need to provide us with your email address.

Notwithstanding your consent to website publication there may be particular circumstances in which the Company needs to, or is required to, send documents or information to you in hard copy form, in which case the Company reserves the right to do so.

Action to be taken

If you wish to consent to the website publication of documents and information generally, you do not need to take any further action. If however you do not wish to consent to website publication and would prefer to continue to receive hard copies of future documents and information through the post, you must complete the enclosed electronic communications preference form and return it to the appropriate address. If you do not return the form within 28 days from the date of this letter being Friday 16th April 2021, you will be deemed to have consented to website publication and you will no longer receive hard copies in the post.

Even if you consent, or are deemed to have consented, to website publication, you can always request a printed copy of any document or information from the Company at any time. You can also change your instructions at any time by contacting the Company's Registrar, Link Group:
